"Money in a Fish"
matthew 17: 24-27
It was time to pay the temple tax. The money was used to fix up the temple. One day, some tax collectors came to Peter and said, "Jesus does not pay the temple tax, does he?" Peter said,

"Of course he does."
Before Peter could ask Jesus what to do, Jesus told him, "even though I am the Son of God, I will pay the tax. Go fishing. Take the first you catch. Look in its mouth and you will find a coin."

3
Take it and give it to the tax collectors. It will pay my tax and yours." Peter caught a fish. He opened its mouth and he found a coin inside! It was just the right amount to pay the tax collectors.
